

Infection Control Training

Designed to give an introduction to the issues surrounding infection control and highlights the kinds of working practices essential to preventing the spread of infection.

Benefits:

By the end of this course, candidates will be able to:

Understand how infection can be controlled in their workplace how important it is to have a good level of general hygiene in the workplace. The causes of infection, how infection is spread and how it can be controlled.

Duration

1 day (in-house or arranged public courses)

Course outline:

- Personal hygiene
- The work environment
- Food hygiene
- The chain of infection
- Risk areas in the workplace
- Breaking the chain

Training requirements:

Maximum suggested candidates: 12 (more can be arranged)

Venue: Large room

Equipment required: Pennine Training will provide all delegates materials handouts, copy of PowerPoint slides. Laptop and projector.

Cost: £32.00 per delegate. In-house course will be a day rate of £290.00.

Timing: 09.00am to 4.30pm